

Full Name:	UNM ID:
Email:	Date:

Applied Credit Form
Ph.D. or M.A. student

Applied Credit (UNM or other Institution)

Ph.D. Students: Students that have completed graduate credit level coursework at an accredited institution other than University of New Mexico, may request up to eighteen (18) credit hours to be applied toward their NAS Ph.D. degree program. For UNM Applied Credit, students may count up to twenty-four (24) credit hours of graduate level coursework. The student must have earned a grade of "B" or better in the course to count. The course syllabus and official transcript must be provided to the NAS Chair and faculty Graduate Director. Applied credit is approved by the NAS Chair and faculty Graduate Director. For more details, review the Ph.D. handbook. Email materials to Lloyd L. Lee at triplel@unm.edu and Wendy Greyeyes at greyeyes@unm.edu.

MA Students: Students that have completed graduate credit level coursework at an accredited institution other than University of New Mexico, may request up to six (6) credit hours to be applied toward their M.A. degree program. Transfer courses cannot be from an awarded degree. Student must have earned a grade of "B" or better to count. The course syllabus and official transcript must be provided to the NAS Chair and faculty Graduate Director. Applied credit is approved by the NAS Chair and faculty Graduate Director. For more details, review the M.A. handbook. Email materials to Lloyd L. Lee at triplel@unm.edu and Wendy Greyeyes at

Applied Credit (Course Number and Title):	University	Credit Hours	Semester	Grade	Note
Credit Total:

Transfer Evaluation:

Do the course(s) have at least 50% of Native American Studies content (readings, lectures/seminars, community visits, and/or assignments) that address topics on Native American Studies? Explain and be specific using your syllabus and any assignments as your justification.

Approved by Graduate Faculty Director:	Date:
Approved by NAS Chair:	Date: