

Join us for lunch with Dr. Cynthia Chavez Lamar, UNM Alum and Director of the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian!

Thursday, April 28, 2022
12:00-1:00, lunch provided
Mesa Vista Hall NE Courtyard
RSVP by April 25 at:
NAS.UNM.EDU

Dr. Cynthia Chavez Lamar (San Felipe Pueblo, Hopi, Tewa, and Navajo) is the first Native woman to head a Smithsonian museum. She is an accomplished curator, author and scholar whose research interests are focused on Southwest Native art and the methodologies and practices involved in collaborating with Indigenous communities. We hope you can attend!

